East Side Union High School District Seeks Applicants for Citizens’ Bond Oversight Committee

Deadline Extended

The East Side Union High School District is recruiting applicants for the Citizens’ Bond Oversight Committee (CBOC). Measures G and Measure E were passed under the rules of Proposition 39, which directs the Board of Trustees to appoint a Citizens’ Bond Oversight Committee to monitor bond expenditures. This Committee is responsible for reviewing expenditures related to the District's $298 million general obligation bond, Measure “G,” approved by voters in March 2002 and the District’s $349 million general obligation bond, Measure “E,” approved by the voters in February 2008. Members serve two-year terms.

The CBOC is required to have at least seven members that meet the criteria listed below; however, the District is interested in expanding the number of members to allow for more parent representation.

Required positions:

• One (1) member shall be active in a business organization representing the business community located within the district.
• One (1) member shall be active in a senior citizens' organization.
• One (1) member shall be active in a bona fide taxpayers' organization.
• One (1) member shall be the parent or guardian of a child enrolled in the District.
• One (1) member shall be both a parent or guardian of a child enrolled in the District and active in a parent-teacher organization, such as the Parent Teacher Association or School Site Council.
• Two (2) members of the community at-large.

No employee or official of the District can be appointed to the Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee. Also vendors, contractors, or consultants of the District are not allowed to serve as members of the Committee.

For more information on the role and responsibilities of the CBOC or to download the application, please visit http://www.MeasureE.com

Completed applications must be received by the District by 5 PM on Thursday, March 31, 2011, via US mail, personal delivery, e-mail or fax at:
